

Congressman Tom Petri invites you to participate in the

29th Annual Congressional Art Competition:
*An Artistic Discovery

- All high school students residing in the 6th Congressional District may participate.
 - Acceptable categories include: painting, drawing, collage, print, mixed media, computer generated art, and photography.
 - The deadline for submission is April 9, 2010.
-

All artwork will be part of a two-week exhibit and be displayed at the Windhover Center for the Arts in Fond du Lac.

The first-place winners in each congressional district will have their artwork displayed in the U.S. Capitol for one year, and will be invited to a special student reception to be held in Washington, D.C. in June.

For more information, contact your art teacher or call Congressman Tom Petri's district office at 1-800-242-4883.

Last year's guidelines are available online at www.house.gov/petri and are subject to change. Please check website in February for updated information.

